Greene's Calling

by A.D. Starrling

Even immortal warriors have limits... A.D. Starrling publishes the gripping third adventure in the award-winning supernatural thriller series, Seventeen

The Crovirs and the Bastians are two races of immortals that have lived side by side with humans since the beginning of time. Greene's Calling finds former Bastian leader Conrad Greene attempting to quietly live out the rest of eternity in the Amazonian jungle. But a nearby plane crash causes the old warrior to stumble across a conspiracy involving the newly elected US President and Greene is coerced into returning to his old life.

As a team of elite human and immortal agents investigate the deadly plot to alter the course of human history, can the jaded healer summon his old powers one more time? Or has he finally met his match? A.D. Starrling's first novel Soul Meaning, the first in the Seventeen series, achieved the following literary awards:

- WINNER: FANTASY CATEGORY, NATIONAL INDIE EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2013
- FINALIST: ADVENTURE CATEGORY, NATIONAL INDIE EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2013
- FINALIST: ACTION-ADVENTURE CATEGORY, NEXT GENERATION INDIE BOOK AWARDS 2013
- HONORABLE MENTION: GENERAL FICTION, HOLLYWOOD BOOK FESTIVAL 2013

The second book in the series, King's Crusade, recently won the ACTION/ADVENTURE category at the INDIE BOOK AWARDS 2014.
